Product Overview

Konnect from Vox is a Ka-band Satellite service that delivers reliable, high-speed Internet connectivity to users anywhere across South Africa. With Service Plans exceeding 20Mbps for the first time, Konnect is an ideal solution to connect un-serviced and under serviced areas within a short time for Internet breakout and voiceover. Konnect is available in a range of packages as either a primary or redundant Broadband service. It's also complimentary within an SD-WAN deployment.
